Wireless Internet Access Policy

The Lincoln County Public Library provides free wireless access (WiFi) at all location. These access points are unsecured and filtered to comply with CIPA (Children's Internet Protection Act) regulations.

By choosing to use wireless service you agree to abide by the Library's Computer and Internet Access Policy and the Library's Code of Conduct.

This service is subject to the terms and conditions of use as follows:

Limitations & Disclaimers
● Wireless access is provided as a public service free of charge on an as-is basis with no guarantee and no warranty. The library's wireless network is subject to periodic maintenance and unforeseen downtime.
● Like most public wireless "hot spots," the Library's wireless access is not secured and could be monitored, captured, or altered by others. There are risks involved with connecting to a public wireless connection, such as possible viruses, malware, loss of data, possible hacking/snooping by others connected, possible hardware/software failure. Caution should be exercised if transmitting personal information (credit card numbers, banking accounts, passwords, and other sensitive information). It is your sole responsibility to protect your information from all risks associated with using the Internet, including any damage, loss, or theft that may occur as a result of your use of the Library's wireless access.
● Wi-Fi users should have up-to-date antivirus software on their computers or mobile devices.
● Mobile device users are responsible for setting up their equipment to access the Lincoln County Public Library wireless network. Library staff can provide general information for connecting to the wireless network but cannot troubleshoot problems related to your wireless device's network settings and/or hardware configuration.
● The Library cannot guarantee your device will work with the Library's wireless network.
● The Library assumes no responsibility for the safety of equipment; users must keep their equipment with them at all times.
● Use of electrical cords should not present tripping hazards.

If you do not agree to the above terms, the Computer and Internet Access Policy, and the Library's Code of Conduct Policy please disable your wireless connection or turn off your mobile device.

Library users who access other WiFi networks while on Library property are also governed by the Library's Computer and Internet Access Policy and the Library's Code of Conduct.
